

IOG and Perennial event

- On Saturday 7th August, Perennial warmly invites IOG members and their families to an evening at glorious Barnsdale Gardens in Oakham, Rutland, with live jazz and a hog roast.
- Perennial is offering a special ticket price of £12.50 to IOG members (normally £15).
- IOG members are invited to arrive from 6.45. On arrival they will have their own specially reserved area in Barnsdale's Green Room.
- At 7.30 the event starts – IOG members will have their own reserved area within the gardens (including a covered gazebo!).
- The ticket price includes all entertainment and food. There is a pay bar, with very reasonably price drinks.
- Tickets can be obtained from Perennial – please see the flyer for details, or call our ticket line on 0845 676 0636, quoting IOG 07/08.
- All proceeds from this event will benefit Perennial, the IOG's charity partner.
- For those staying over, Nick Hamilton, Barnsdale's owner and son of BBC Gardeners' world presenter Geoff Hamilton, has offered to take guests on a personal guided tour of the gardens the following day, Sunday 8th August (am, time tbc).
